

Junior Golf Classes

at Gus Wortham Park Golf Course

Level 1

Age - 5 to 8 years old

A great way to get your child started in the game of golf! He/she will have so much fun with many exciting and enjoyable ways to learn the game. Instead of just hitting range balls like most junior clinics, participants will "play" and enjoy learning the game with other children their age and skill level. When children play with other children their age, they tend to stay with the game longer and enjoy it even more.

Level curriculum overview:

- Golf Swing Technical Skills
- Playing Skills
- Rules & Etiquette

Student/Instructor Ratio 6:1

1 Hour per week

$100/Month

Level 2

Age - 8 to 17 years old

The perfect opportunity for the beginner or less experienced player to learn the basic fundamentals of golf. Students do NOT have to have any prior golf experience to be in this division, but they must be an attentive student and want to learn. Everyone will have fun while learning the finer details of the game and its benefits that will last a lifetime.

Level curriculum overview:

- Golf Swing Technical Skills
- Course Management
- Performance Statistics
- Shot Making Skills
- Playing Skills
- Rules & Etiquette

Student/Instructor Ratio 6:1

1.5 Hours per week

$150/Month

Level 3

Age - 12 to 17 years old

Comprised of students that passed all the Level 2 Skills test and will build on the foundation created through the first two levels. There will be more skill testing in more areas with a demand to perform at a higher level. Level 3 students will have the ambition to continue their golf career in High School.

Level curriculum overview:

- Golf Swing Technical Skills
- Course Management
- Performance Statistics
- Shot Making Skills
- Physical Fitness
- Rules & Etiquette
- History of Game
